WORLD LEADER
IN EXPLORATION
TRAVEL

Curiosity and wanderlust run deep in all of us. We long to travel, experience the unexpected, learn something new, and return home renewed. We are all, in fact, explorers.

With a proud pioneering heritage stretching back 125 years, Hurtigruten has been helping adventurous travelers experience the polar regions of the world for generations. Rooted in our company's DNA is the quest to sail to some of the most remote, pristine areas on Earth - and to keep exploring the frontiers of our planet.

We draw on this spirit as we present to you, our modern-day explorers, exceptional experiences with nature, wildlife, and people.

From pole to pole - on land and at sea - with purpose-built expedition ships, Hurtigruten has led the world in polar exploration since 1893. And with the much-anticipated launch of our two new state-of-the-art, hybrid-powered expedition ships, MS Roald Amundsen (launching in 2019) and MS Fridtjof Nansen (launching in 2020), we will witness the dawning of a new age of exploration. These historic sister ships, fittingly named to honor Norway's greatest polar heroes, will revolutionize how we explore, offering guests the world's safest, greenest, and most immersive premium-quality adventure travel experiences possible.

Embrace the adventure in the destinations we explore: Antarctica; Norway and Svalbard; Iceland and Greenland; Canada; and South America. New for the 2019-2020 season, we travel in the wake of Roald Amundsen with a full journey through the Northwest Passage; journey to remote Alaska and the Inside Passage; combine our expedition cruises in South America with exciting Land Adventures to Machu Picchu and the Galápagos Islands; and launch our northernmost cruise ever, to Franz Josef Land in Arctic Russia.

Join us, and challenge your perceptions and expectations - I promise you an adventure!

that is quieter, smoother, and cleaner than ever before. We've made the largest investment in our history to add two advanced hybrid-powered ships – MS Roald Amundsen (launching in 2019) and MS Fridtjof Nansen (launching in 2020) – to our expedition fleet. Together, these cutting-edge vessels will usher in the next era of expedition cruising.

Roald Amundsen
Norwegian explorer
(1872 – 1928)

Amundsen led the expedition that was the first to reach the South Pole, followed by an air expedition to the North Pole, making him the first person to reach both extremes of the Earth.

1922

The Lofoten and Vesterålen archipelagos are added to the stops along the Norwegian coast.

1925

DS DRONNING MAUD is the first ship of a new generation. She is about one and a half times bigger than her predecessors. For the first time, all cabins have running water and separate ventilation systems.

1932

Hurtigruten arranges SHIP RACES from Bodø to Svolvær, and DS Princess Ragnhild wins the Vestfjord's blue ribbon when she clocks in at 3 hours, 44 minutes. In normal traffic today, the trip takes 6 hours.

1936

A ship now leaves Bergen EVERY DAY. Every year more than 230,000 passengers travel on board the fleet, which comprises 14 ships.

1937

All Hurtigruten ships are equipped with SONAR depth finders, electric logbooks, and radio transmitters.

1940-45

The Second World War brought Hurtigruten into the conflict, and the line carried out transport service under German occupation and control. A total of 14 ships were lost during the hostilities.

1945

The reconstruction of Hurtigruten after World War II takes the highest priority. New ships are built.

1952

Since 1949, seven new ships have been added to the fleet. The entire fleet is fully equipped with diesel engines and transports 500,000 passengers per year. The on-board CLASS SYSTEM is no longer used.

1982

MS Vesterålen, MS Midnatsol, and MS Narvik are new vessels that replace older ships. MS Midnatsol is the first ship with a SIDE HATCH for easier loading and unloading.

1993

Hurtigruten celebrates its 100TH BIRTHDAY. The construction of the modern MS Kong Harald starts a new era. Now, 11 of a total of 14 ships are in regular service on a permanent basis.

2001

On May 30, MS Lofoten (built in 1963) is declared a national monument by the Norwegian government.

2002

One of the new-generation ships begins sailing expedition cruises from Cape Horn to the Antarctic Peninsula. Two new ships, MS Trollfjord and MS Finnmarken, commence their MAIDEN VOYAGES along the Norwegian coast.

Hurtigruten invites all guests to participate in environmental activities on beaches on Svalbard as a part of the Clean Up Svalbard initiative.

Hurtigruten's expedition ship MS Fram is added to the fleet and completes its maiden voyage to Greenland. MS Fram is the MOST MODERN expedition ship of its kind at the time.

2010

In addition to Greenland and the waters of the Antarctic, MS Fram now also operates along the coasts of Spitsbergen and Europe.

Hurtigruten launches Climate Voyages to Svalbard to enhance knowledge about the vulnerable Arctic environment.

The northbound journey with MS Nordnorge from Bergen to Kirkenes from June 15-22 is broadcast live on Norwegian television. At 134 hours, 42 minutes, and 45 seconds, it is listed in the GUINNESS BOOK OF WORLD RECORDS as the world's longest live broadcast.

2013

Hurtigruten CELEBRATES its 120th anniversary.

2016-2017

MS Fram is accompanied by MS Midnatsol in Antarctica, more than doubling the options for explorers and adventurers. MS Midnatsol also explores the Chilean fjords and the highlights of Antarctica. Hurtigruten also acquires the new expedition ship MS Spitsbergen and strengthens its position as world leader in exploration travel, adding Atlantic Canada to the list of destinations. New expeditions are also introduced along the South American coast.

A new era will begin as Hurtigruten launches the world's first hybrid-powered cruise ship: MS Roald Amundsen. Hurtigruten adds new expedition cruises such as sailing through the full Northwest Passage and exploring Franz Josef Land to expand the company's frontiers.

2020

Hurtigruten will launch its second hybrid-powered cruise ship, MS Fridtjof Nansen.

ANTARCTICA

Discover Antarctica's astounding beauty

— Antarctica is unlike anywhere – or anything – you've ever experienced. Join us to explore pristine wilderness and set foot in a world where wildlife is unafraid of humans, where the only sound you hear is the cracking of glaciers, and where you know you've traveled well beyond the horizon.

With over 125 years of know-how in polar waters, no other adventure-travel company offers our level of expertise. Hurtigruten is uniquely equipped to take you to the very best of Antarctica. On our expedition cruises, you will experience amazing landings, head out on small-boat adventures to get close to icebergs, encounter a rich variety of wildlife, visit remote research stations, and much more. Join us on an adventure to the heart of this untouched wilderness.

GO ASHORE IN ANTARCTICA

— HURTIGRUTEN'S EXPEDITION SHIPS TAKE YOU AS CLOSE AS POSSIBLE TO ANTARCTICA'S WILDLIFE AND PRISTINE WILDERNESS

MS Roald Amundsen will have a capacity of 500 explorers, and will be the world's first cutting-edge, hybrid-powered cruise ship. She will offer excellent amenities, and have the ability to glide quietly for short periods of time into the remote and pristine wilderness.

MS Midnatsol, our 'Discovery Ship', with a maximum of 500 guests, was rebuilt for expedition cruises to Antarctica and the Chilean fjords in 2016, where she more than doubled the options for explorers and adventurers traveling to Antarctica.

MS Fram, purpose-built for extreme conditions, carries only 200 explorers in Antarctica, offering a wider range of possible landing sites, following IAATO regulations.

— HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR LANDINGS IN ANTARCTICA

Please note: We hope to land at the following destinations, but weather and ice conditions will determine our final itinerary.

DECEPTION ISLAND

This distinctive ring-shaped volcanic caldera has a navigable opening into a flooded interior. We go ashore in the natural harbor, which includes Whalers Bay, home to an abandoned whaling station as well as a derelict British base.

HALF MOON ISLAND

On this remarkably photogenic island, we will explore the serrated and creviced cliffs that are home to a large colony of chinstrap penguins and several species of seals and seabirds that regularly visit the island.

YANKEE HARBOR

Early sealers used Yankee Harbor on Greenwich Island as a frequent base of operations, as it provided a natural safe haven. One of the main sights here is the large colony of gentoo penguins, estimated to be close to 4,000 breeding pairs.

ANTARCTIC SOUND

The huge ice shelves of the Antarctic continent produce mile-long tabular icebergs. The strong currents of the Weddell Sea bring these massive flat-topped icebergs north into the Antarctic Sound at the northeast of the Antarctic Peninsula. We will hopefully enjoy this breathtaking sight as we sail through.

BROWN BLUFF

This 2,440-ft-high rust-colored bluff that towers over the beach is volcanic, and the beach is peppered with lava 'bombs'. The wildlife we will see up close here includes Adélie penguins, gentoo penguins, and kelp gulls.

CUVERVILLE ISLAND

Cuverville Island boasts the largest known colony of gentoo penguins on the Antarctic Peninsula. We will sail through the narrow Errera Channel, to and from Cuverville, and see the icebergs that have become trapped and grounded in the nearby shallows.

WILHELMINA BAY

Go ashore and enjoy dramatic scenery and sculpted ice, from tiny floating pieces to large icebergs. The bay is a choice feeding area for whales and seals, and served as a rich hunting ground for whalers of the past.

NEKO HARBOR

The gentoo penguin colony lies nestled in Andvord Bay, surrounded by the mountains and high glacier walls of the peninsula. Neko is one of the rare places in this area where we actually hope to land on the Antarctic mainland.

PARADISE HARBOR

Paradise Harbor offers another rare opportunity for a mainland landing and some of the finest vistas the peninsula has to offer, as well as a research base and penguin colonies.

LEMAIRE CHANNEL

This 7-mile-long and 1-mile-wide channel is one of the most beautiful passages in Antarctica, offering spectacular views and amazing photo opportunities.

PETERMANN ISLAND

Located in the picturesque Penola Strait, this is a great spot for iceberg- and whale-spotting, with views across the channel to the Antarctic Peninsula.

DETAILLE ISLAND

Here at the former Station W, scientists performed surveys in geology and meteorology. This base had to be evacuated when sea ice and weather made relief by ship impossible.

THE GULLET

The Gullet is a beautiful narrow channel with spectacular scenery that extends 11 nautical miles.

—In the stunning Arctic wilderness, polar bears outnumber people and nature is very much in command.

While the polar bear is clearly the 'King of the Arctic', Hurtigruten is the undisputed leader when it comes to exploring Norway and the untouched Arctic wilderness. No one else comes close to our years of experience – and deep connection – with this region. In fact, we've been bringing explorers here for over 120 years!

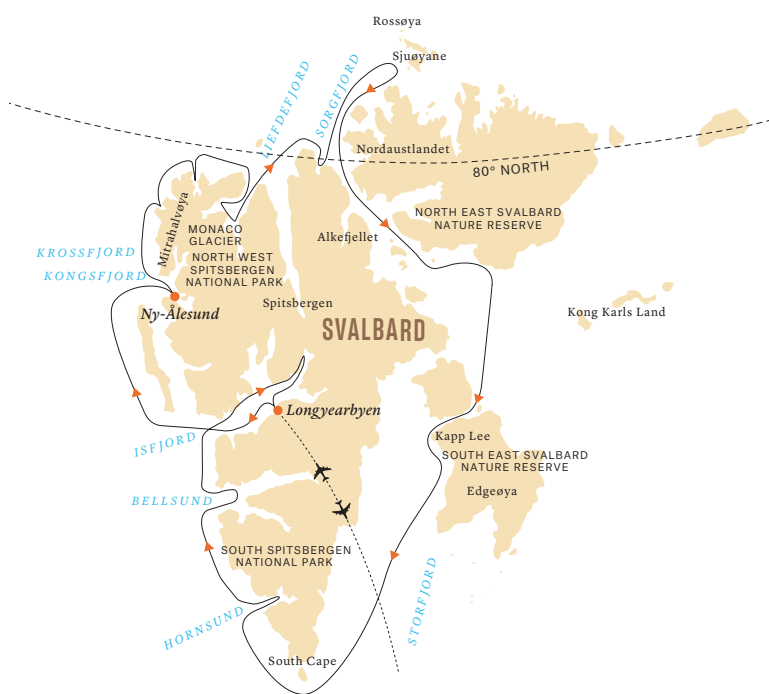

Whether you choose to discover Norway, Franz Josef Land, or Svalbard by land or sea, we offer itineraries and activities to fit every interest.

Look for humpback, fin, and minke whales, as well as seals and porpoises, as we head toward this settlement 25 miles north of the Arctic Circle.

DAY 3: Ilulissat

The stunning Ilulissat Icefjord, a UNESCO site, features the Jakobshavn Glacier, one of the

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Brochure accuracy

The information and descriptions contained in this brochure have been checked by our staff and/or local agents to ensure they are correct. However, changes may occur after the date of publication and there may be occasions when Hurtigruten or local suppliers may withdraw some products. Many areas we visit are very remote and affected by prolonged cold weather or difficult terrain. Provision of products will be subject to local conditions.

Changes to the itinerary and excursions

Every cruise is unique. All routes and excursions are provisional and subject to change, as weather, sea, and ice conditions may affect the itinerary. Excursions may also be subject to a minimum/maximum number of participants. Hurtigruten AS reserves the right to change the itinerary and the content of excursions without prior notice (see Terms and Conditions).

Children policy

Hurtigruten AS cannot allow children under the age of 5 to travel with us to Antarctica. For safety reasons, children under 12 years of age will be considered for participation at each landing.

Communications to/from the ships

All cabins on MS Roald Amundsen, MS Midnatsol, MS Fram, and MS Spitsbergen have a telephone. Depending on location, phone connectivity may be out of range or limited due to the remote locations in which we sail. Guests can access the Internet through Wi-Fi at select locations (charges will apply, except for guests in suites). Internet connectivity may be out of range or limited due to the remote locations in which we sail. Depending on location, mobile phones may function in some places on shore. Check with your carrier for details.

Environmental awareness

Please respect the saying: "Leave nothing but footprints, take nothing but pictures."

Expedition team

Your expedition team leader will regularly update you on the progress of the cruise as well as identify different points of interest and wildlife sightings that may occur. At the Expedition Desk, you can find information regarding the cruise and book optional excursions.

Flight packages

Please see the individual cruise pages for available flight packages. Our Customer Sales Agents can advise you of availability and prices. Flight times provided at the time of booking are provisional and subject to change; please check flight times before you travel.

Included charter flights

For cruises to Antarctica, Greenland, Spitsbergen, and the Northwest Passage, we operate with included charter flights. Their flight times depend on the availability of the aircraft on the international charter flight market and on the approval of air traffic control, which can result in flights with arrival and departure times in the early morning or late evening. Guests who have not booked an overnight stay at the end of their tour ending in Santiago de Chile should not book an international flight from Santiago de Chile before 22:00. Guests who have not booked an overnight stay at the end of their tour ending in Buenos Aires should not book an international flight from Buenos Aires before 20:00. Please note that the charter flights to/from Ushuaia depart/arrive at the Jorge Newberry Airport. You need at least 3 hours to change airports in Buenos Aires for your connecting flight to Ezeiza International Airport. Hurtigruten does not accept any responsibility for guests missing an international return flight in the event of a delay.

Medical declaration form

In accordance with Hurtigruten AS requirements, all travelers to Antarctica, Northeast Greenland, Russia, the Northwest Passage, and on all cruises crossing the Atlantic Ocean must complete a confidential medical declaration form, signed by a doctor, stating that they are fit to travel. This form will be available to you in advance of travel, and must be filled out, brought on board, and personally delivered to the doctor upon embarkation. Boarding may be denied if this form is not presented at the time of embarkation.

Medical facilities

There is an English-speaking physician and nurse on board MS Roald Amundsen, MS Midnatsol, MS Fram, and MS Spitsbergen at all times. Each ship has a small medical facility with the necessary equipment and medication to handle minor emergencies. If you depend on medication, bring a sufficient supply to last through any unforeseen delays. If you depend on vital drugs, please inform the ship's doctor upon arrival.

Passport and visa requirements

It is the responsibility of the guests to ensure they comply with any visa travel document requirements at the time of travel. Familiarize yourself with the required travel documents you will need to provide prior to boarding the ship. At check-in, your passport will be collected to clear immigrations and customs. Please pay special attention to the ESTA/ETA regulations for our North America and Canada cruises as well as to the mandatory visa requirement for our cruises to Russia.

Ships' security

All Hurtigruten ships comply with ISPS (International Ship and Port Facility Security Code) regulations. All checked and carry-on luggage is subject to x-ray and metal detector inspection upon arrival to the ship and port facilities throughout the cruise.

Vaccinations

On some cruises, vaccinations are required. Guests are responsible for ensuring they comply with any requirements at the time of travel.

What to wear

For all cruises, we advise you to bring breathable rain-resistant and windproof clothing, as well as a warm hat, gloves, scarf, and thermal underwear during the winter months. Guests are expected to wear proper footwear at all landings. For all Antarctica landings, rubber boots are required. You may borrow a pair of high-quality rubber boots free of charge to wear during landings and hikes, or bring your own. Rubber boots may also be required and provided at other locations in which we sail. Sturdy shoes are important for some shore excursions and a walking stick/trekking pole may also be useful. On MS Roald Amundsen, MS Midnatsol, MS Fram, and MS Spitsbergen cruises, a complimentary wind- and water-resistant jacket will be provided to guests.

Wheelchair access

MS Roald Amundsen, MS Midnatsol, MS Fram, and MS Spitsbergen are suitable for guests using a wheelchair. Guests in need of special assistance must travel with a companion. A gangway will be used to embark/disembark the ships. In ports where tidal conditions or other circumstances require the use of a portable gangway, or during landings with tender boats, wheelchairs can not be used during embarkation or disembarkation.

ONBOARD INFORMATION

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

These Terms and Conditions are effective for bookings made as of January 1, 2019.

IMPORTANT NOTICE:

Please read the terms and conditions of this Guest Passage Contract (the "Contract") carefully as they constitute the complete and entire legally binding agreement between you and Hurtigruten as to the subject matter discussed below. Please pay particular attention to Sections 13 through 18 as they include limitations on our liability and your right to sue.

The terms and conditions of this contract apply to the sea passage as well as to all other products or services of any kind whatsoever provided for or arranged by Hurtigruten AS, their agents or independent contractors. These terms and conditions represent the entire agreement and a binding contract between Hurtigruten AS and the customer. These provisions supersede any oral or written representations. Any change in these provisions must be in writing signed by the president of Hurtigruten AS. The transports of passengers, baggage and vehicles is subject to the provisions of the Act no. 39 of 24 June 1994 Norwegian Maritime Code, as amended ('Norwegian Maritime Code'), and package tours are subject to the provisions of the Act no. 57 of 25 August 1995 Relating to Package Tours ('Package Tours Act'). Copies of the Norwegian Maritime Code and the Package Tours Acts, in Norwegian and in English, are on file with Hurtigruten AS and available upon request. The terms and conditions of this contract are drawn up in accordance with the Norwegian Maritime Code, Package Tours Act, and the regulations laid down by the Norwegian Ministry of Children, Equality and Social Inclusion. However, in case of conflict between this contract and the Norwegian Maritime Code or Package Tours Act, this contract shall take precedence.

1. CONTRACT

Your contract partner is Hurtigruten AS. When used in this contract, 'you,' or 'customer' means each person whose name appears on the face of the ticket and/or who uses the ticket for passage on the cruise described in the ticket. 'Hurtigruten,' 'we,' and 'us,' means Hurtigruten AS and its subsidiary, affiliate, and parent companies, agents, assigns and vessels they own or charter. When you book travel or a cruise with us, this contract is regarded as binding once Hurtigruten receives the first payment from you that is required under section 4 below. Hurtigruten is then responsible for delivering the products/arrangements you have booked while you are financially responsible for the booking. The moment you make a booking you are confirming at the same time that you have the authority to accept these terms and conditions on behalf of yourself and any travel companions.

You accept responsibility for payment to us for all customers in your booking. The customer is solely responsible for ensuring that the actual reservation corresponds with the booking made. As the person making the booking you are also responsible for ensuring that the names on all documents are correct and in accordance with the passports of all customers for whom you are making the booking. As the person making the booking you will also be responsible for ensuring that all travel companions in the booking are kept fully informed of what was booked and any changes that may arise. If you are booking your trip via an agent/travel agency, all communication shall take place via the agent/travel agency. Note that travel agencies/agents may have additional terms and conditions that you will be subject to when booking travel through them. Always quote your booking number when contacting Hurtigruten.

2. GOVERNING LAW AND FORUM SELECTION CLAUSE

Any disputes and matters of whatsoever nature between the customer and Hurtigruten shall be governed by Norwegian law. Such disputes and matters shall be litigated in and before a court of law in the city of Bergen, Norway.

3. GUARANTEE

Hurtigruten at all times provides the statutory guarantee for package tours from: The Norwegian Travel Guarantee Fund Post box 227 N-4001 STAVANGER Norway

4. PAYMENT

Payment is due immediately for all online bookings which have a total price of less than $1,340, including taxes and additional charges. For all other bookings, payment is due as follows:

i. If you book 90 days or more before your scheduled departure date a non-refundable deposit of 20 % shall be paid when you book. The balance of 80 % is due 90 days before your scheduled departure date. No second invoice will be sent. Travel documents will be issued 7 to 14 days prior to departure.

ii. If you book less than 90 days before your scheduled departure date the full price is payable when you book.

If you fail to make any payment by the date on which it is due under this contract, Hurtigruten reserves the right to cancel the booking, keep the deposit and demand a cancellation fee in accordance with Section 10 below. In the event of special promotions, the total amount may be due immediately at the time of booking. Your travel documents will be sent as soon as Hurtigruten has received payment, normally no later than 4 weeks prior to departure.

5. PRICES

The fare set forth in this contract is stated in U.S. dollars, is per person based on double occupancy and does not include land arrangements or services, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by Hurtigruten. The fare does not include items of a personal nature, including but not limited to, laundry, liquor, beer, or wine. The full and correct price of the trip is given before a booking is confirmed, except as set forth below. The fare includes taxes, fees, port expenses, and charges imposed by governmental or quasi-governmental authorities. Hurtigruten reserves the right to add certain specified additional charges to the price of your booking such as, for example, a fuel surcharge, in the event that there may be increased costs or if an airline raises rates or imposes surcharges up to 30 days before departure. Hurtigruten reserves the right to collect the fare in effect at the time, and as a condition, of embarkation. Should prices be reduced as a result of the same changes mentioned above, the price adjustment will be credited to you. In the event of price increases of more than 10 percent, you retain the right to cancel your booking at no charge, with a full refund of all amounts paid. Should you wish to cancel your booking as mentioned above, notification of this must be received by Hurtigruten at the below address, at least 14 days from the date of the new invoice showing the increase in price.

6. AIR TRAVEL

You may choose to book your airfare through Hurtigruten. However, all such arrangements are made by us solely as your authorized agent and for your convenience and are at your risk. Air travel providers, owners, and operators are independent contractors and are not acting as agents or representatives of Hurtigruten. Hurtigruten does not undertake to supervise or control such independent contractors or their employees, and makes no representation, express or implied, as to their suitability or safety. Hurtigruten shall not be liable for any delay, damage, injury, death, or loss of any kind whatsoever due to the acts, omissions, or negligence of any air travel providers, owners, operators, or their employees or agents. The prices specified for air travel in Hurtigruten's brochure are based on available seats in the lowest pricing category for flights. If these seats are not available at the time of booking, Hurtigruten will seek to offer the lowest available flight price. The flight price will be quoted upon request and the quote will be provided within 24 to 48 hours. Once you accept the quoted flight price, you must pay that amount in full within 24 hours of your acceptance. Please note that some flight prices require a local airport fee to be paid in cash by the customer. Such costs are not included in the agreed price for the booking.

Airline tickets issued may not be reissued or exchanged for another air carrier or routing. Cancellation or re-booking charges will be assessed by the airline for any changes and these additional costs are the sole responsibility of the customer.

According to the European Parliament and Council Regulation no. 261/2004 you have the right under certain circumstances to a refund and/or compensation from the airline if you are refused boarding of the flight or in cases where flights are cancelled or take-off is extremely delayed. You must claim such refund or compensation directly from the airline company. Refunds in such cases will not automatically give you the right to a refund of your costs from us. In cases where delays can result in the right to cancel a flight with the selected air travel provider, this will not automatically give you the right to cancel or receive a refund for any other arrangements with us, even if they were agreed on in connection with the flight concerned unless and to the extent we caused the delay.

7. CHANGES TO BOOKING BY CUSTOMER

Changes to bookings are considered cancellations and incur all associated fees pursuant to section 10 of this contract. Minor adjustments to bookings may be permitted at Hurtigruten's sole discretion, such as upgrades in accommodation or the addition of excursions or add-ons. For any such adjustments Hurtigruten allows that are made within 90 days of your scheduled departure date, Hurtigruten reserves the right to charge you an administrative fee of USD $ 75 per person per adjustment, payment of which shall be a condition of embarkation. Changes in air travel and other arrangements such as shore excursions may also be subject to change fees and/or increases by the air carrier, for which the customer shall be solely responsible. Ground transfers (for example, bus rides) purchased through Hurtigruten are not refundable. Please review the documents and instructions for transfers that were sent to you. Missed transfers are not the responsibility of Hurtigruten and there is no reimbursement available.

8. TRANSFER OF BOOKING

This contract is personal and cannot be assigned, sold, or transferred to persons other than the customer without the express written consent of Hurtigruten.

9. TRAVEL PROTECTION PLAN

We recommend that all passengers purchase a travel protection plan to help protect you and your trip investment from unexpected events such as cancellations, delays, and medical emergencies. Please read the cancellation policy below.

10. CANCELLATION BY CUSTOMER

You or anyone in the booking have/has the right to cancel the booking at any time. All cancellations must be done in writing by the person who has made the booking. The cancellation is effective on the date that Hurtigruten receives the cancellation request at the address provided in this contract. Please note: There is no refund on bookings that cost less than $1,340 (including taxes and additional charges). Cancellation fees are calculated according to the following schedule for all other bookings:

Number of days before departure when the cancellation letter is received by Hurtigruten	Charges as a % of the total package cost
total package cost	100%
90 or more days	20%
60-89 days	50%
30-59 days	75%
Less than 30 days	100%

For trips that are based on pre-paid flights, including any airfare we book on your behalf, the airline company's booking and cancellation rules will apply to the air portion. Any trip protection costs will be additional to the agreed price for the booking. The same applies to any connection travel that does not form part of this booking. You will be responsible for all such costs. There is no refund of any or all of the booking price for customers who do not show up at the pier for embarkation or who disembark prior to the end of their ticketed cruise itinerary. Should the customer's cabin include several people, partial cancellation will result in the application of the above penalties to the persons who have cancelled and the remaining customers being charged the applicable prices for the revised number of customers in the cabin. If you have to cancel your booking for reasons that are covered by your travel protection plan, you must apply for a refund from your insurance company for the cancellation fee of your own accord. Insurance premiums are not refundable. Cancellation charges are calculated based on total fares paid to Hurtigruten for all trip components. Cancellation charges will apply notwithstanding that Hurtigruten is able to rebook the cabin in question.

11. CANCELLATION, DEVIATION, OR SUBSTITUTION BY HURTIGRUTEN

You agree that Hurtigruten has the sole discretion and freedom to direct the movements of its vessels, including the right to proceed without pilots, tow or be towed, assist other vessels; deviate from the customary or advertised course for any purpose that is sufficient in the judgment of Hurtigruten or the vessel's captain, including but not limited to offering or rendering assistance in an effort to preserve life or property; and put in or back in to, or call or stop at any port or place. Hurtigruten shall not be required to provide you prior notice before exercising its discretion on any of these matters, and shall not incur any liability to you for any loss, damage, or delay, whether consequential or otherwise.

Hurtigruten shall at all times have the absolute right, without liability to you, to take all actions necessary to comply with orders, recommendations or directions from any governmental entity or persons purporting to act with such authority, including but not limited to those pertaining to health, security, immigration, customs, or safety.

Hurtigruten reserves the right to cancel any cruise or booking without liability or compensation to you, provided such cancellation is due to circumstances that are beyond Hurtigruten's control, including but not limited to acts of God, war, piracy, terrorism, civil strife, labor conflicts, weather conditions, perils of the sea, mechanical breakdown, or collisions ('force majeure events'). If as a result of a force majeure event, Hurtigruten determines that proceeding to, attempting to enter, entering, or remaining at a port may expose the ship to risk, loss, damage, or delay, the customer and his or her baggage may be disembarked at any port or place at which the ship may be or call, at which time Hurtigruten's responsibility under this contract shall cease and the contract shall be deemed to have been fully performed.

Hurtigruten reserves the right to omit, alter, or curtail any shore excursions at its sole discretion. Hurtigruten reserves the right to substitute any vessel in place of the vessel on which you booked passage for any reason, including reasons based on Hurtigruten's fault, without liability for loss or damage of any kind whatsoever. If a deviation to a cruise is minor, of a kind that the customer should have anticipated occasionally occurring, or the occurrence of which is beyond Hurtigruten's reasonable control, then Hurtigruten shall have no obligation to pay a refund to the customer. If a deviation is not minor, or Hurtigruten cancels a cruise, Hurtigruten shall provide a refund commensurate with the portion of the trip that did not take place.

12. CUSTOMER'S AGREEMENT TO ABIDE BY HURTIGRUTEN REGULATIONS AND CAPTAIN'S ORDERS

You agree to abide by Hurtigruten's rules and the ship captain's orders at all times while aboard Hurtigruten's vessels. Hurtigruten reserves the right, without liability of any kind, to refuse passage to, disembark, or confine to a stateroom, any customer who may be suffering from any contagious or infectious disease, refuses to obey this contract or the Captain's orders, endangers the safety of himself or herself, other customers, or crew, or whose presence, in Hurtigruten's sole discretion, may be detrimental to the comfort, enjoyment, or safety of other customers, the vessel, or the crew.

Each customer may bring aboard the ship a reasonable amount of clothing and personal effects without charge, subject to airline restrictions. However, you must not bring or cause to be brought aboard any Hurtigruten vessel any of the following items: illegal or controlled substances, fireworks, live animals (except service or guide animals), weapons, firearms, explosives or other hazardous materials, or any other items prohibited by applicable law. You shall not solicit anyone on board for any commercial, professional, or charitable purposes. Hurtigruten reserves the right to disembark or refuse to embark anyone failing to comply with this provision. In such cases, Hurtigruten shall have no liability whatsoever to the customer for any refund or any other related loss or expense to the customer and any accompanying customers. In any port or any place, we reserve the right to refuse to take on board and the right to disembark customers who, according to the ship's authorized personnel, may be refused permission to land on new ports of call by local authorities or that may be suffering from a contagious or infectious disease, or whose presence could be detrimental to customers or the crew's welfare. In cases where the ship or individual customers are in quarantine (customers may have to remain in the berth or are instructed by authorized personnel on board if he/she or any other person in the berth shows symptoms of illness or can be regarded as a danger to other customers), we do not have liability for any costs that result, and in such cases there will be no rights to refunds or compensation.

13. COMPLAINTS

Should you believe that you have grounds to complain about an arrangement, the conditions must be pointed out underway to the applicable travel guide, crew, and/or representatives of hotels/car hire companies, airlines, etc., who will seek to correct any errors. You are also obliged to minimize your own losses as far as possible. If the incident is not addressed satisfactorily on-site, you may send in a written complaint. Any written complaints must be submitted to the travel agency where the booking was made or directly to Hurtigruten. The complaint must contain the reservation number and a description of the incident as well as any claims made. Hurtigruten makes no guarantee of any redress or particular response to any complaints.

14. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Hurtigruten's liability is limited to you under this contract. Hurtigruten is not liable to you for any loss, injury, death, property damage, delay, or harm of any kind caused by or arising from events outside of Hurtigruten's reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, war, piracy, terrorism, civil strife, labor conflicts, weather conditions, perils of the sea, mechanical breakdown, or collisions. Hurtigruten shall not be liable or responsible to the customer in any way for any injury, death, illness, delay, loss, or damage not shown to be caused by Hurtigruten's negligence or fault. Hurtigruten is also not liable for damages for emotional distress, mental suffering, or psychological injury of any kind that does not result from a physical injury to the customer, actual risk of physical injury to the customer, or intentionally inflicted by Hurtigruten.

FOR ALL CRUISES THAT DO NOT EMBARK, DISEMBARK OR CALL IN A UNITED STATES PORT, HURTIGRUTEN SHALL AT ALL TIMES BE ENTITLED TO ANY AND ALL LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY, IMMUNITIES, AND RIGHTS SPECIFIED UNDER THE 'CONVENTION RELATING TO THE CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS AND THEIR LUGGAGE AT SEA' OF 1974 (AS AMENDED BY THE 1976 'PROTOCOL TO THE ATHENS CONVENTION RELATING TO THE CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS AND THEIR LUGGAGE BY SEA') (HEREINAFTER 'ATHENS CONVENTION').

In the case of personal injury or death, Hurtigruten's liability shall not exceed 400,000 Special Drawing Rights ('SDR') per customer per occasion (approximately USD $ 577,440 as of March 1, 2018, which amount fluctuates daily depending on the exchange rate as printed in the Wall Street Journal). If the personal injury or death was caused by a shipping incident (defined as shipwreck, capsizing, collision or stranding, explosion, fire, or defect in the ship), Hurtigruten's liability is limited to 250,000 SDR (approximately USD $ 360,900 as of March 1, 2018, which amount fluctuates daily depending on the exchange rate as printed in the Wall Street Journal), but can increase to 400,000 SDR unless Hurtigruten proves that the shipping incident occurred without Hurtigruten's fault or neglect. Shipping incidents do not include incidents that result from acts of war, hostilities, civil war, insurrection or natural disasters, or that result from intentional acts or omissions of third parties.

Hurtigruten shall not be liable for money, securities, and other valuables such as gold, silver, jewels, watches, ornaments, financial instruments, and works of art unless Hurtigruten has received them for safekeeping. Hurtigruten's liability for loss of or damage to luggage (defined as any article or vehicle carried by Hurtigruten under a contract of carriage, excluding articles and vehicles carried under a charterparty, bill of lading, or contract primarily concerned with the carriage of goods, and live animals), including any items received for safekeeping, shall not exceed 3,375 SDR (approximately USD $ 4,875 as of March 1, 2018, which amount fluctuates daily depending on the exchange rate as printed in the Wall Street Journal).

Hurtigruten's liability for loss of or damage to cabin luggage (defined as luggage which the customer has in his or her cabin or is otherwise in the customer's possession, custody, or control), shall not exceed 2,250 SDR (approximately USD $ 3,250 as of March 1, 2018, which amount fluctuates daily depending on the exchange rate as printed in the Wall Street Journal). Hurtigruten's liability for loss of or damage to vehicles, including all luggage carried in or on the vehicle, shall not exceed 12,700 SDR (approximately USD $ 18,335 as of March 1, 2018, which amount fluctuates daily depending on the exchange rate as printed in the Wall Street Journal).

IN ALL CASES, LOSSES SHALL NOT INCLUDE PUNITIVE OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES.

15. NOTICE OF CLAIMS AND TIME TO SUE

Hurtigruten shall not be liable for any claims for personal injury, death, loss or damage to luggage or personal property, unless suit on such claims is commenced within two years from the date of disembarkation or, in the case of death occurring during the cruise, from the date when the passenger should have disembarked. For all other claims, Hurtigruten shall not be liable unless suit is commenced within one year from the date of disembarkation.

16. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISKS

There are certain unavoidable risks to the customer and the customer's property associated with being aboard a vessel and participating in shore excursions. These include, but are not limited to, rough and unpredictable weather and seas; collisions of ships or other vehicles; illnesses caused by consumption of food and beverages; slip and fall due to the motion of the sea or other causes; lack of access to medical services; civil unrest or terrorism; evacuation of the vessel in an emergency; unpredictable behavior of animals in the wild; and breakdown of equipment. The customer warrants that the customer and any passengers for whom the customer is responsible are fit to travel, and warrants that the customer will only engage in those activities that are within the customer's physical ability and experience. The customer agrees to assume all the risks associated with sea travel and shore excursions.

17. NO LIABILITY FOR INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS

You may be afforded the opportunity to contract with third parties acting as independent parties for the provision of shipboard personal services and shore excursions. You acknowledge that all shore excursions, tours, airline flights, ground transportation, and hotels are either operated by or are independent contractors. While Hurtigruten shall be entitled to collect a fee for such services, Hurtigruten does not supervise or control the actions of these independent contractors, or make any representation either express or implied as to their suitability or competence. Hurtigruten, in arranging such services, does so only as a convenience for the customer and the customer is free to use or not use those services. Hurtigruten does not assume any responsibility for or guarantee performance of any such independent contractors. Hurtigruten shall not be liable for any negligent, grossly negligent, or intentional acts or omissions of such independent contractors, nor for any loss, damage, injury, or delay to the customer or the customer's property in connection with such services.

The fees and costs for shore excursions, tours, airline flights, ground transportation, hotels, or any other services provided by independent contractors which the customer orders but does not use are neither refundable by Hurtigruten nor exchangeable.

18. INDEMNITY FROM DAMAGE

You and your traveling companions must behave in a manner that is not a nuisance to other passengers and that will not cause safety or practical problems for the cruise or any independent contractors. The customer shall be liable to and shall reimburse Hurtigruten for all damages or loss to Hurtigruten's property, including the vessel and its furnishings and equipment, and for all damages or loss to independent contractors and other Hurtigruten passengers, caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by any act or omission of the customer and those for whom the customer is responsible, whether willful or negligent. The customer shall further indemnify Hurtigruten and all of its agents or representatives against all liability whatsoever arising from any personal injury, death, damage, delay, or loss caused directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by any act or omission of the customer and those for whom the customer is responsible, whether willful or negligent.

19. MEDICAL CARE AND NOTICE OF SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Prior to boarding, you must notify us of any medical condition for which you or any person accompanying you may require either medical attention or accommodation during the cruise, including but not limited to food allergies, or for which the use of a wheelchair or service animal is required. The customer assumes all risks arising out of the customer's personal medical condition prior to the cruise, whether or not that condition is disclosed to Hurtigruten. If you or anyone in your party requires the use of a wheelchair, you must provide your own. Hurtigruten strongly recommends that customers with physical disabilities or medical conditions that may require special assistance before, during, or after the cruise be accompanied by someone who is able to assist both ashore and at sea, as Hurtigruten is unable to offer such services. Medical facilities are not available aboard the ship, and there may be circumstances beyond Hurtigruten's control that may prevent or delay a medical evacuation or disembarkation. While a doctor or medical personnel may be on board the ship, these individuals are not agents or employees of Hurtigruten, but are independent contractors.

Hurtigruten shall not be liable for any aspect of medical treatment provided to the customer, including, but not limited to, the consequences of any examination, advice, diagnosis, treatment, prognosis or other services that such doctor or medical personnel may furnish the customer. It may be necessary for the customer to obtain shoreside medical service during or after the cruise in countries other than the United States in which a different standard of medical care applies than to which the customer may be accustomed. Hurtigruten makes no warranty as to the quality of any such medical services. If a doctor or other medical personnel is aboard as an independent contractor of Hurtigruten, and if in the opinion of such personnel the customer needs medical attention, and if after embarkation the customer is unable to request or authorize such treatment, the customer hereby consents to treatment by such individuals, or by a physician designated by Hurtigruten. The customer shall be charged for, and shall pay for, medical services and for medication and supplies used for his or her medical treatment. The customer shall also be responsible for the payment of any medical expenses incurred ashore.

Moreover, certain international or local safety requirements, standards and/or applicable regulations relating to design, construction or operation of the vessel, docks, gangways, anchorages or other facilities on or off the vessel may restrict access to facilities or activities for persons with mobility, communication or other impairments or special needs. The captain shall have sole discretion to determine whether physical conditions may prevent a customer from going ashore in such situations.

20. TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

Your specific passport and visa requirements as well as any other immigration requirements are your own responsibility and you must clarify this with the relevant embassies and/or consulates. We do not accept any responsibility in situations where you cannot travel because you do not meet the latest requirements. If you have made independent travel arrangements, you are responsible for boarding the ship in good time, regardless of any changes to the sailing times and dates or travel routes. We cannot refund monies paid to us, or a third party that acts on our or your behalf, or give compensation or make any payments when you, regardless of the reason, do not board the ship. Customers that disembark are responsible for boarding the ship again before departure from the port.

21. VALIDITY OF BROCHURE

Hurtigruten's travel brochure and the information contained in it, including prices and itineraries, is subject to change without notice at the discretion of Hurtigruten. Hurtigruten is not liable or responsible for any typographical errors and/or omissions. We reserve the right to at any time change the travel information and correct any mistakes in Hurtigruten's brochure. Should changes be made to the brochure before you have made your booking, we will attempt to advise you thereof before confirmation of bookings.

22. PROTECTION OF PRIVACY

To process your reservation, Hurtigruten needs some basic information. This includes names, address, any special requirements/dietary requirements, etc. We take all precautions to ensure that the information will not be misused. Nevertheless, we must pass on the necessary information to certain independent contractors that are involved in your travel plans. This applies, for example, to airlines, ships, hotels, and transport companies. The information may also be given to credit companies and government authorities such as customs/immigration, if required. We will never give out this type of information to private individuals or companies that are not directly responsible for part(s) of your trip. This applies particularly to sensitive information that you provide, such as details on any disabilities, special dietary requirements or religious needs. If you do not accept that we pass on such information if required to do so, we reserve the right to reject your booking. Please note that if you make a booking with an agent/travel agency, it is the agent's protection of privacy procedures that will apply. Hurtigruten shall not be responsible for any third party's protection of your privacy. Should you wish to have a copy of personal information that we have registered about you, you are welcome to contact us. Hurtigruten may also contact you by e-mail and/or telephone with news, information, travel offers and marketing surveys. If you do not wish to be contacted for such purposes, please advise us of this by e-mail to:

USbooking@hurtigruten.com.

23. PHOTOGRAPHS AND VIDEOS OF CUSTOMER

During the course of your cruise,

Hurtigruten may produce photographic, video, and/or audio-video recordings ('images'), which may be made available to passengers and may also be used by Hurtigruten in advertising and promoting its products. The customer consents to the making of images including the customer's appearance, words, and voice, while the customer is engaged in the cruise, and grants to Hurtigruten the irrevocable, perpetual, royalty-free right to use, reuse, publish, republish, and disseminate such images and any copies or derivative works from such images in any manner for promotional and other commercial purposes, in any medium and without restriction as to changes or alterations, or reproductions thereof in color or otherwise. The customer releases and assigns to Hurtigruten the right or interest the customer may have in images including the customer's appearance and/or voice recorded by Hurtigruten's employees, agents, or contractors, and waives any rights of any kind in or over such images including rights of compensation, publicity, privacy, copyright, review, inspection, or approval.

24. SEVERABILITY

In the event any paragraph, clause or provision of this contract is deemed invalid or illegal in any jurisdiction, such paragraph or provision shall be deemed reformed to the extent necessary to render it enforceable, so long as consistent with the basic purpose of the paragraph, clause, or provision. If the paragraph, clause, or provision is not reformable, it shall be deemed severed from this contract in that jurisdiction only and all remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

MINIMIZING OUR IMPACT

WE AIM TO PROTECT AND IMPROVE THE BEAUTIFUL AND FRAGILE
PLACES WE VISIT

— TAKING RESPONSIBILITY

Becoming the world leader in exploration travel comes with a great responsibility for preserving the natural wonders along our routes. Traveling is an exciting part of our modern lifestyle, but the desire for travel and exploration has an impact on the environment, the wildlife, and the people who live in the places we visit. Every cruise has an impact, and acknowledging this is a crucial part of sustainability.

At Hurtigruten, we seek to minimize the impact of our operations. This is why we put great effort into enhancing our destinations, strengthening our environmental initiatives, and running a responsible and sustainable operation.

We guarantee the highest environmental awareness on board and ashore, and take great pride in our commitment to preserve the natural wonders that we visit.

Hurtigruten collaborates with a wide range of scientific communities, providing important knowledge and information about the Arctic and Antarctica. Our goal is to be the most sustainable option for travel to the polar regions, and we have already made many changes to ensure that we leave the smallest possible footprint.

— ENHANCING OUR DESTINATIONS

Hurtigruten offers life-affirming experiences in regions where the nature, culture, and wildlife are unique, and we work to sustain and enhance our destinations through social, environmental, and safety improvements. This means that we trade locally, respect traditions, and value cooperation with the communities that go to great efforts to welcome our guests, both along the Norwegian coast and in the polar regions.

Our two new hybrid-powered ships, MS Roald Amundsen and MS Fridtjof Nansen, will usher in the future of exploration travel by setting a new standard for environmentally conscious expedition cruising.

MS Roald Amundsen and MS Fridtjof Nansen will use electric propulsion, reducing fuel emissions by 20%, and allowing guests to sail without engine noise for short periods of time.

Nearly 30 different energy-saving measures have directly contributed to reducing our annual emissions by 540 metric tons of NOx and 18,000 metric tons of CO₂. We continue to search for new ways to reduce our emissions even further.

We have measured the sea temperature along the Norwegian coast in cooperation with the Norwegian Institute of Marine Research since 1935. This data is used to monitor and assess environmental conditions.

We contribute to continuous, real-time oil surveillance along the Norwegian coast. Using a hyper-spectral laser, we can detect even the smallest oil spill.

Starting July 2018, we banned the use of all unnecessary single-use plastic across our entire fleet of ships. Our goal is to become the world's first plastic-free cruise line.

No heavy fuel oil (HFO) is permitted on board our ships, which use only the lighter SDM/MGO fuel types, which have lower sulfur emissions, less NOx, and less soot than heavy oil. We are working to ban the use of all HFOs in Arctic waters.

In Svalbard, we contribute to the Marine Mammal Sightings Data Base, which tracks marine mammals in the Arctic. This data improves our overall understanding of habitat use and seasonal movement patterns.

We have optimized our itineraries and routes to achieve the most efficient operation of our ships. Regular, professional maintenance also impacts environmental operations and reduces fuel consumption.

HURTIGRUTEN FOUNDATION

COMMITTED TO RESPONSIBLE,
SUSTAINABLE, AND MEANINGFUL TRAVEL

The aim of the Hurtigruten Foundation is to ensure that our guests of the future can enjoy the same meaningful travel experiences as those who travel with us today. The Hurtigruten Foundation raises awareness of opportunities and challenges in the areas we visit, and raises funds to manage these opportunities and challenges in the best possible way. We want to ensure that our footprint is as small as possible, and that our presence is positive in the places that we visit.

Ocean advocate, pioneer swimmer, and environmental campaigner Lewis Gordon Pugh was appointed 'Patron of the Oceans' by the United Nations in 2013, and is the first ambassador for the Hurtigruten Foundation. Lewis Gordon Pugh says, "By establishing the Hurtigruten Foundation, the company seeks to enhance awareness and contribute funds and knowledge, through years of experience, to protect the vulnerable nature and unique culture of these polar areas. Hurtigruten wants to offer travel with meaning. By having guests, staff, partners, and Hurtigruten friends from around the world joining forces, they aim to ensure that future guests can have the same unique experiences in these areas as the guests of today. I feel confident that through this foundation we can achieve great results and make a real difference."

We support several local initiatives, such as 'Clean Up Svalbard' and the Association of Greenlandic Children. Our onboard auctions have contributed to some of the most ambitious habitat restoration projects on Earth, including protecting the albatross in South Georgia, and the maintenance of research stations in Antarctica.

We invite you to join us in this important work for sustainable travel.
